SHORT LOCAL SUGGESTIONS

Joe Francis, the popular Halfmoon Bay merchant was a local visitor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ralston have moved from San Gregorio and will make their home here.

Judge E. F. Fitzpatrick is again in his own building on A street from where he was necessarily absent since April 18th.

The brick masons who have been at work on the Carnegie library building have about completed their labors and the work of fitting up the interior will now begin.

Mrs. M. Finger will leave today for Santa Barbara where she will make her future home with her son Henry. Mrs. Finger is one of the oldest residents of this city having come here as a bride fifty one years ago.

The members of the team of Matamoros tribe Improved Order of Redmen are requested to attend the next meeting of the tribe on Monday evening. The object is to have a drill as several palaces will be adopted on the 26th instant.

John Cronin has applied in the Superior Court for letters of administration upon the estate of Ellen Cronin who died in this city in 1893. The estate consists of lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in block 60. Eastern addition to Redwood City valued at $1000.

Mrs. Smith who has been visiting her sister Mrs. C. O. Foster for the past six weeks left Thursday for Hollister where she will remain for several weeks, on her return to her home in Beckwith, Alaska, she will be accompanied by Mrs. Foster.

Mr. Wallace Sloane who is connected with the postoffice department in Memphis Tennessee, after spending the past two weeks with his friend Dr. Barrett will leave for Los Angeles where he will sight-see for a couple of weeks before proceeding to his home.

It is understood that Sheriff Chatman, elect, will appoint Frank Bartlett of San Mateo his chief deputy when he assumes the duties of the office on the first of the year. Al Lowe of this city will be the deputy under County Clerk Nash, elect on taking the office on January 1st.

C. C. Benson of this city was offered and accepted the superintendency of the Palo Alto street railway system this week at a salary of $3000 per annum. Mr. Benson has had a great deal of experience in this line of business and will without doubt place the company in a good paying position.

Now that the election is over it is learned that all the politicians are smoking the Golden Eagle and Oakwood cigars just the same as they did before election. These cigars are the best ten cent cigars in town and are manufactured by Geo. Weiching proprietor of the Red Front Cigar store.

N. B. Graves of this city together with Rod Taylor of Menlo Park, is about to engage in the hardware business in San Francisco. The place of business will be near the park in a rapidly growing section and as both gentlemen are well acquainted with the business they will without doubt make a great success of it from the start.

Missionary C. A. Parker of the Baptist church was in attendance at the annual meeting of the state mission society at Oakland last week. He returned to his mission field this week and will preach as usual next Sunday afternoon. He will speak upon some phases of marvelous manifestations of divine power seen across the Atlantic.

Thursday was indeed a gala day for Palo Alto. About 5000 people accepted the hospitality of the college city and enjoyed the many attractions prepared. The running of the street cars was of course the principal center of interest and the various churches profited well from the day's proceeds. Quite a number from Redwood City enjoyed Palo Alto's hospitality.

This morning Auctioneer George West will sell at public auction at the home of Mrs. M. Finger all of the household effects and implements owned by her, including furniture, carriages, lawn mower, chickens, wagons, harness, buggy, three tons barley hay and many other articles too numerous to mention. The sale will take place at 10 o'clock. Those desiring bargains should attend the sale.

Will G. Lovie stopped off at Redwood Wednesday to spend a few hours with his parents while enroute for Bakersfield where he has some experting to do for the Stanfle Cremical company. Will returned on Tuesday from Hawthorne Nevada, where he had been since the opening of the Walker river Indian Reservation. The Walker River Reservation borders Walker Lake and contains much of the richest mineral land in Nevada. Mr. Lovie was on the ground in time to locate a good claim.

E. E. Cunningham and several other influential business men of South San Francisco with whom he will edit and publish the South San Francisco Enterprise. The company will be incorporated for $50,000 and a $6,000 plant is being installed. Mr. Green is personally supervising the selection of the stock and will have the most highly improved and up to date machinery, and his office will be one of the best in the state. Mr. Green comes of good journalistic stock, his father Will Green having been for years the proprietor and editor of the Colusa Sun.

Miss Dot Leathers and Mr. Henry Clockson both of this city were united in marriage Monday in Palo Alto. Mrs. Clockson was born and raised in Redwood City and after passing through the local schools and the San Francisco normal received an appointment to the Redwood School department where she has been teaching for the past nine years. Mr. Clockson is an employee of the Duffield Lumber Co. at Palo Alto and is highly esteemed by all of his acquaintances. After a wedding trip in the southern part of the state the happy couple will make their home in Palo Alto. The Times-Gazette joins their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Clockson a long happy married life, and may their troubles be little ones.

GRAND JURY ORGANIZED

The Grand Jury was organized in Judge Buck's court Tuesday morning by the selection of the following citizens who will inquire into the county's official affairs:

M. F. Brown, M. J. Hawes, Geo. E. Stafford, Asa E. Hull, B. D. Weeks, H. G. Shultz, John Mangini, C. J. Hatch, W. J. Plump, J. N. Winter, A. J. Carleton, J. J. Hintz, W. A. Moore, E. E. Dulac, Geo. D. Greeley, T. F. Casey, John Pool, C. S. Knapp, J. M. Francis.

W. J. Plump was appointed foreman and C. J. Hatch secretary. After organizing W. J. McGarvey was appointed expert.

Judge Buck delivered a lengthy charge to the jurors in which he instructed them in their duties and informed them of their powers. He admonished them to make a careful inquiry into the county's affairs, using the utmost diligence in their work and at the same time to avoid the incurring of needless expense.

Notice to Creditors

D. Hayward, administrator at the law office of Joseph J. Bullock, Lipp Building, Redwood City, San Mateo County, California, the same being the place for the transaction of the business of said estate in the County of San Mateo, State of California.

C. D. HAYWARD,
Administrator of the estate of David J. Mills, deceased.
Dated at Redwood City, Cal., Nov. 17th, 1906.

Joseph J. Bullock, Attorney for said Administrator.

WOODSIDE

Dick Meyer is erecting a neat cottage on his recently purchased property in the Canyada. Mr. Meyer sold his home on Albion avenue lately and thinks so much of Woodside that he intends to remain in the village. Keep the local contractor is building his new home.

The Misses Annie Meyer and Edith Bottger have returned home after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in the metropolis.

Edw. Hallett has secured a position on the Stanford estate and will move his family to that place.

Edw. Dearborn has sold his teaming interests in this place and will move to Redwood where he has secured a good position with one of the local lumber companies.

Supervisor MacBain has a large fore of men and teams at work getting the roads in this vicinity in shape for the winter.

After a short illness Carrie Susanna Dalve, the third eldest daughter of Mrs. C. S. Dalve died last Monday evening. Carrie was suffering from St. Vitus dance to some extent. Three weeks ago she received a severe attack of Sciatic rheumatism and the efforts of the best physicians failed to give her relief.

There is somebody in Woodside who sees a hard, cold winter for them and is preparing for the winter's blast by helping themselves with wood that does not belong to them.

Mass next Sunday and hereafter during the winter months will be celebrated in Portola church at 10 o'clock.

Death of Carrie Dalve

Carrie Susanna Dalve the fourteen year old daughter of Susanna and the late Cornelius Dalve passed away Monday at her home in Woodside after an illness of two weeks. The cause of the illness was rheumatism which gradually affected the heart. Carry was a bright happy child and was loved by all who knew her. She was bright in school and was an especial favorite with her teachers, whom she always tried to please. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home where Rev. C. C. Kirtland conducted the ceremonies. The interment was in Union cemetery.

PENINSULA HOTEL

The Peninsula Hotel company of San Mateo has been legally organized, and the following officers are selected: President, Captain John Barneson; vice president, John H. Coleman; secretary, Paul Pinckney; treasurer, Thomas R. Turner; manager J. H. Doolittle.

Architect Hobart of New York, has been appointed to prepare the plans for the building and if possible the hotel will be opened by May 1 of next year.

Hose companies Nos. 1 and 2 will give a grand ball at the Alhambra on Thanksgiving Eve. Every one in town should turn out and patronize the fire ladders in their attempt to replenish their treasury. The city looks to them for protection so it should be generous when a favor is asked in return.

John Knuff a laborer working on the high school building was struck on the head by a falling brick Wednesday and quite badly hurt. The blow caused the unfortunate man to go insane and he has been confined in the jail since. His father in Nebraska was communicated with and will arrive on Sunday to take charge of his unfortunate son.

A surprise party was tendered to C. Kirby at his mother's home by his friends Wednesday evening. It was an enjoyable occasion.

On Nov. 12 at San Mateo there was born to the wife of Thos. F. Burke a twelve pound baby boy. Mrs. Burke was formerly Isabella Curran of this city.

Ordinance No. 211
An Ordinance declaring a certain road and street and avenue in the First Road District of the County of San Mateo, State of California,
to be a public highway.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, do ordain as follows:
Section 1.
There is hereby declared to be,
and recorded as a public highway, a certain road, street and avenue, in the First Road District of the County
of San Mateo, State of California, hereby named and designated as
"Fifth Avenue," which said road, street and avenue has become a public highway by reason of dedication, and use by the public; said road, street and avenue extends from the Northern line of the property of the Cypress Lawn Cemetery Assocation to Villa Avenue and Western of the County Road and the right of way of the Southern Pacific railroad company and being the said road, street and avenue referred to, described and delineated upon the map of the lands of "Villa Homestead Association," now on file and of record in the Recorder's Office of the County of San Mateo, State of California as Fifth Avenue.

Section 2.
This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after fifteen days after its passage.
Passed and adopted as an Ordinance of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, this 5th day of November, 1906, by the following vote:
Ayes, and in favor of the passage of the said Ordinance, Supervisors
J. H. Coleman, J. Elkerenkotter, J.
MacLean.
Noes, and against the passage of said Ordinance, Supervisors, none.
Absent, Supervisors J. Debenedetti and C. J. Coburn.
